TERMINAL CO. DEFICIT. Treasurer Receiver's Report Shows It Amounts to $142,600; Santa Fe Will Fight.

A new audit revealed yesterday to the terminal company that its deficit for the year ended December 31, 1908, amounts to $142,600. The report was made by the receiver of the terminal company, who is now in possession of the company's books. The deficit is the result of a number of items, including the cost of the terminal building, the cost of the terminal equipment, and the cost of the terminal operations. The receiver's report also shows that the terminal company has a net worth of $1,000,000. The receiver is now in possession of the company's books and is preparing a report for the court. The receiver's report is expected to be filed in court in a few days. The receiver is now in possession of the company's books and is preparing a report for the court.
